Good afternoon,

I apologize for my late response. Priscilla brought to my attention yesterday there was an email sent that was not responded to, and so she sent it to me. We were in trial yesterday and pretty busy this morning and early afternoon.

I found your email in my "junk" file. When your email came in it was flagged as "Warning this may be spam," and by habit I put it in junk. So sorry.

Anyway, I have attached information for your understanding about our work product regarding our audio files.

Good morning, Mr. Saunders:

I received your fax yesterday. Please email me in the future as you've had Mr. Mains do so, so the fax is not overlooked or misplaced. The fax machine is not in my office.

As I have responded in the past, my audio is "work product" and it does not fall under public information. I have sent you information regarding this. Everything that transpired in Mr. Lozano's case was transcribed and is the official record.

Good afternoon,

After reviewing all the hearings held in Mr. Lozano's case, I found two that were overlooked; therefore, they were never transcribed and sent up to the court of appeals. One is from another reporter who covered for me back in August of 2017. Her name is Tina Bohren, and she can be reached at tbohren@epcounty.com. I believe she took a hearing regarding a travel request.

The file I found was mislabeled on my files. The time was inaccurate, and so it showed it being held on the 15th of March instead of the 14th. That is why it was first overlooked. However, I found it after checking further into my files.
